INSTRUCTIONS TO TAX-GATHERERS

Circulars Prepared by Auditor Moore Ready to be Sent Out.

AFTER BACK TAXES.

Paper States Law is Mandatory and Must be Enforced—Courts Must Get Busy.

Richmond ,Va. Nov. 18. — That Auditor Moore is seeking to enforce the laws of the State as he sees them, is borne out by a circular letter of instruction he is about to mail to examiners of records in all the districts and to commissioners of the revenue throughout the state

Asked for a statement in connection with the undertaking, Mr. Moore said:

"I will send to the commissioners of the revenue and the examiners of records a circular letter of instructions relating specifically to the assessment of intangible personal property of all persons, etc., who have not been fully assessed for 1913 and previous years, as the law requires. The investigations these officers are called upon to make relate to back assessments of estates which show that the persons leaving those estates were not fully and completely assessed during their life time; also relates to persons living who have not been for previous years fully assessed, as the law requires.

"The present law requires these assessments, and I expect the officers to make them.

"The assessments heretofore made of record in this office and of record in the Clerk's office of every county and city show these omissions.

"I confidently expect the officers to carry out the provisions of this law, and unless they do, it may be necessary to advise the General Assembly that the law has not been enforced, and leave it to the General Assembly to make provisions for enforcing the law where officers have failed to do so.

"So far, in very few of the counties and cities there have been thorough and critical examinations by grand juries of the assessments for 1913. This requirement is mandatory upon every Circuit Court and Corporation Court of the Commonwealth, and I suppose that the courts will see that the law is complied with. Last year I communicated data to each court. This I have not done this year, knowing that they were fully advised.

"All taxpayers have had ample opportunity to make full returns for 1913 and previous years. It, therefore, only remains for me to call upon the officers of the state whose duty it is to make assessments for omitted taxes to proceed to make them, and it is my duty under my oath of office to enforce this law as long as it is upon the statute books, and if I am unable to enforce its provisions to specifically call the attention of the General Assembly to the difficulties encountered so they may provide statutes which will make laws operative."

NEWS OF THE DAY.

In an old-fashioned duel with pistols at the regulation distance, Henry Sivard was killed by Louis Guval yesterday at Loreauville, La. Both men were wealthy planters. They had quarreled over a woman.

Leroy Robinson, eighteen years old, son of Silas Robinson, of Dragston, N. J., was shot and instantly killed yesterday by Teddy Laws, thirteen years old. Robinson and a companion were driving near Dividing Creek when Laws advanced to within five spaces of the wagon and, leveling a shotgun, said: "I am going to shoot you." He pulled the trigger and Robinson's head was blown off Laws said he didn't know the gun was loaded.

The strike of operating employes of the Southern Pacific Railroad in Louisiana, which tied up the movement of the cotton crop, was ended yesterday, when the railroad yielded to the demands of the men to meet a committee of the four organizations. The men were ordered to return to work at once. Mail was piling up at points in Texas and Louisiana, and supplies of merchandise were running low in many towns that have service only over the Southern Pacific.

A double tragedy, evidently the result of a suicide pact between James Elias Griffith twenty-four, and his wife, Verna Margaret Griffith, of Altoona, Pa., which occurred in the Metropole Hotel, at Toledo, some time Sunday night, was discovered yesterday, afternoon. When entrance to the locked room was made by a porter of the hotel the body of the woman was found on a bed. A bullet had entered her left cheek and had passed almost entirely through her head. The man was lying unconscious on the floor with a bullet hole in his forehead. He will die. Griffith refused to say how or by whom he or his wife had been shot.

Letha Perdue, aged 19, convicted last Saturday of involuntary manslaughter for having shot and killed James Kendrick, her brother-in-law, at Huntington, W. Va., paid a fine yesterday of $25 and court costs, a total of $71, and was released from custody. Her defense was emotional insanity and the "unwritten law." Miss Perdue shot and killed Kendrick several months ago. She claimed that after the death of her sister, Kendrick's first wife, he had paid attentions to her. He later eloped with a nurse, and it was in the presence of the second bride that Miss Perdue killed Kendrick.

A dispatch from Durban, Natal, Union of South Africa, says the East Indian residents of Natal yesterday declared a general strike, which was accompanied by rioting and the burning of sugar plantations. The police force is insufficient to deal with the rioters, and white women and children are in a state of terror. Troops have been ordered to the disaffected districts. In Durban itself practically the whole East Indian community struck work and became so aggressive that a demand was made for the proclamation of martial law. In the country districts hundreds of acres of sugar cane were burned. The revolt of the East Indians was brought about by the exclusive laws in force against them.

Samuel H. Lessey, cashier of the Birmingham National Bank at Derby, Conn., committed suicide in a vault in Oak Cliff Cemetery, on the outskirts of the city, some time yesterday. His body, lying in a coffin, box, was found in the vault by the police late last night. There was a bullet hole in his temple and one of his hands held a revolver. Mr. Lessey had been with the bank for 25 years. President Nettleton, of the bank, declared that there was nothing wrong with Lessey's accounts.

Biting off the end of her nose is the novel revenge in Paris by an Italian, Gaetano Sanglori, on a young woman who had jilted him. The girl accepted an invitation from the young man to take dinner and he pleaded his suit for the last time. As she remained adamantine, he threw his arms around her and drew her to him as if to kiss her. She did not resist. But, instead of pressing his lips against hers, he suddenly bit off the tip of her nose. Sanglori has been sentenced to a year's imprisonment for his barbarous act.

STENOGRAPHER IS ARRESTED

Sidney Moulthrop, Senator Lewis's Clerk, Trapped in New York.

FORGERY IS CHARGE.

Had Threatened to Make Public Letters Passing Between Lewis and Washington Officials.

Washington Nov. 18.—Following his alleged threats to make public copies of letters passing between Senator James Hamilton Lewis and Washington officials which would "ruin all of them politically, Sidney Moulthrop former stenographer of the Illinois Senator, was arrested in New York early today.

For a week a warrant for Moulthrop's arrest has been in the hand of marshals, charging him with forging the name of Senator Lewis on a check for $240.

Last night letters were received by the President and Senator Lewis signed by Moulthrop, in which he threatened to make public the correspondence which he said would mean the political death of the Senator. These letters wee turned over to the secret service and this department helped the New York and Philadelphia police in locating Moulthrop.

The trial of Moulthrop promises to be sensational. It will be held in Washington.

After the receipt of the letters last night, which were mailed at Hackensack, N. J., it was but a few hours before action came. Warned by underground channels that Moulthrop was in New York, Detective Thompson, of the 125th street station, went to Smith and McNell's hotel last night, and there found his man pacing about the lobby

"Good evening, Mr. Moulthrop," said the detective.

"You've made a great mistake," was the reply. But the detective didn't think so and finally Moulthrop confessed his identity.

On arraignment today on the forgery charge, Moulthrop may be given opportunity to make a statement as to the truth of the letters in the Lewis-Pindel affair, and also as to why he threatened the president with "exposure!"

Moulthrop is said to have admitted forging Senator Lewis' name to a check for $240.

FINED FOR RAFFLING CANDY.

Richmond Confectioner Pays $50 and Costs in The Police Court.

Richmond Va., Nov. 18.— Harry Levy, a confectioner, of 420 Louisiana street, was fined $50 and costs yesterday morning in Police Court for raffling candy. He paid it. Levy was arrested on Sunday by Detectives G. P. Smith and Bryant, who confiscated a quantity of candy and paraphernalia used in conducting this game of chance.

Chief of Police Werner expressed deep satisfaction over Levy's conviction "This is just the beginning of the season when candy raffling starts" he said, "and I am confident that Levy's punishment will deter any others who are inclined to start a lottery of ths sort"

Major Werner explained that with the holiday season close at hand, dealers begin raffles, which result in many complaints being made at police headquarters These complaints are principally from parents of children who throw away their money trying to win something for nothing.

Supreme Court Proceedings.

DR. McMILLAN'S SERMON.

Baltimore Minister Occupies Pulpit of the Second Presbyterian Church Last Night.

Revival services, according to announcement, began in the Second Presbyterian Church last night. There was a good attendance and the sermon of Rev. Dr. W. J. McMillan, pastor of the Maryland Avenue Presbyterian Church, Baltimore, was listened to with close attention. His text was John xx., 24—"But Thomas, one of the twelve, called Didymus, was not with them when Jesus came."

The speaker showed in a plain manner what church members so often miss by absenting themselves from the public services. Doctor McMillan called attention to the fact that one of the twelve was necessarily missing, having apostatised, and one of the eleven, supposed to have been among the faithful, was absent at a time above all others when he should have been one of the small gathering to have greeted the Author of their faith when he appeared after having risen from the dead. The preacher made a practical application of this incident in the lives of the chosen few to show how disciples from that day since have missed so much by staying away from church on frivolous pretexts. The command, "Forsake not the assembling of yourselves together as the manner of some is," was emphasized by the minister.

Services will be held tonight at 7:45 o'clock, when Dr. McMillan will again occupy the pulpit.

Miss MacDonald, of Washington, will be the soloist tonight.

CONFEDERATE SOLDIER DEAD.

R. N. Roland, Old and Well-Known Citizen, Dies at His Home Last Night.

R. N. Roland, one of the best known of Alexandria's citizens, and one of the oldest subscribers of the Alexandria Gazette, died at his residence on north Royal street last night at 10:50 o'clock. Captain Dick, as he was favorably known, had been in ill health for a long time. He was a brave Confederate soldier and served with the 17th Virginia Regiment during the civil war. He was in the 77th year of his age and had been employed in the railroad shops for 42 years—first with the Virginia Midland and later when the Southern took charge. He was a factor in Fourth ward politics in his younger days, and while he did not seek office for himself, he was sought after by willing aspirants. He was at one time a member of the Board of Fire Wardens from the Fourth ward, a position which he had not sought. He is survived by five sons and three daughters—Messrs. Enoch, Ernest, Richard, Charles and Grover, and Adelaide, Alice and Rosa. Among those who are left to share in their loss are 35 grandchildren and six great-grand children. He was a member of the Knight of Pythias and R. E. Lee Camp, Confederate Veterans, which organizations will follow his body to the grave.

LARCENY OF COPPER WIRE.

Over Four Hundred Pounds Found by Officers Near a Stable.

Sergeant Wilkinson and Officers Young and Norris last night found over four hundred pounds of copper wire near a stable on Cameron street, between Royal and Pitt. It was taken to the station house and later the officers arrested William Nowlin and Joseph Buckley on suspicion of stealing the same. Buckley subsequently admitted having been a party to the removal of most of the wire found from a shed at the Portner Brewery. The remainder,it appeared,had been taken from poles on Henry street.

The accused were brought before the Police Court thi morning, when Buckley was made a witness for the prosecution. He repeated the story he told the officers.

Nowlin was sentenced to serve six months in jail, and the case against Buckley was continued with the assurance that should he violate any laws he would be tried on the charge of being an accessorfy to Nowlin.

STEFANSSON IS LOST IN ARCTIC

Explorer, Ten Scientists and Crew of Fifteen Perish.

SUCCUMB IN OCTOBER.

Search For Party Proves Futile—Met Fate of Others Who Penetrated Polar Regions.

Seattle Nov 18—That Vilhjalmar Stefanson Arctic explorer and discoverer of the "blonde" Eskimo, together with ten scientist's and a ship's crew of fifteen was lost in Northern waters during the heavy October weather, is not doubted by sailormen returning today from the Polar regions

Stefansson and his ship were last sighted off Flaxman Island, August 14. Nothing has been seen of the ship since that date, in spite of the fact that extensive search has been made for the ship and her party.

Stefansson, in charge of the Canadian expedition, left Victoria, British Columbia, last July. The Karluk, in command of Capt. Robert Bartlett, had sailed a few days before. Stefansson joined the ship at Nome during the latter part of July.

The Stefansson Arctic expedition differed from most of the other polar undertakings in that its objects were practical and commercial. Its purposes were to learn whether a polar continent exists, to map the island already discovered east of the mouth of the MacKenzie river; to make a collection of the arctic flora and fauna; to survey the channels among the islands in the hope of establishing trade routes; to make a geological survey of the islands which are believed to contain copper and other minerals, and to study the blond Eskimos of Coronation Gulf, on the main land of South Victoria Land. No effort will be made to reach the North Pole; that was to be left to Amundsen, who will sail into the arctic next summer. The expedition expected to return to Nome in September, 1916.

WAR ON MINE OWNERS.

Federation of Labor Votes to Support Michigan Strikers.

Seattle, Wash., Nov. 18.—Fiery speeches were made in the American Federation of Labor convention yesterday attacking the Michigan copper mine owners, whose employes are on strike. Resolutions demanding for contributions for the support of the strikers were adopted.

President Samuel Gompers said the convention undoubtedly would adopt a resolution if it were presented demanding investigation as to how the Calumet and Hecla Company obtained title to its copper land.

The resolutions which were adopted set forth that the mine owners had ignored the demands of the men, spurned their attempts at conciliation and in many ways treated them with contempt; have imported gun men, thugs and so-called detectives into the strike zone, and these men had deliberately killed strikers in cold blood, assaulted women and beaten and terrorized children.

Resolutions were adopted as follows:

Advocating the construction of all naval vessels in navy yards.

Urging higher wages in the navy yards and a Saturday half-holiday for Government employes.

Requesting the Secretary of the Treasury to enforce the law against importation of convict made goods.

Demanding Government supervision of unloading of vessels so as to protect the lives of longshoremen.

Favoring direct investment of postal savings deposits in school district bonds.

The report that President Gompers was considering retirement, and would be offered the post of historian of the federation and editor of the official paper, was denied by him.

EGGS SHIPPED BY PARCEL POST

Valley of Virginia Sending Rabbits in the Same Way.

Lursy, Va., Nov. 18.—The egg famine has struck the Valley of Virginia in a way never before experienced. In the Luray market hen fruit is retailing at 35 and 36 cents. Poultry raisers attribute the scarcity in large measure to the fact that hens are not laying.

Baltimore and Washington families are negotiating with farmers of this country to furnish many dozens of eggs each week to these families, the shippers utilizing the parcel post.

Rabbits are beng shipped to these cities through the same agency.

UNITED STATES TO BLOCKADE MEXICO

Rumors of Huerta's Resignation as Army is About to Rebel.

ACTION OF GERMANY.

Wholesale Arrest of Dictator's Enemies Add to Terseness of Present Situation.

Washington, Nov. 18.—There were rumors in Mexico City today that President Huerta would resign on Thursday; that the army would rise against him; that he had placed many of his enemies in prison. Each added to the tenseness of the situation.

Lord Cowdry after a conference with Ambassador Page at the American embassy in London declares that he would not back General Huerta against the buzz saw or the steam roller, and that promises of concessions by the new congress would not entice him to support the Huerta government.

It is denied in Washington that any move has yet been made to sever diplomatic relations with Mexico.

Admiral Von Hintz the German minister declared in Mexico City that the American blockade of Mexican ports would begin within three days.

Manuel Garo Adalpe once safe aboard the steamship Espagne, tells followers that Senor Madero was at the head of the plot to poison General Huerta.

Conferences continue between Secretary Escudero of the constitutionalist cabinet and Wm Bayard Hale, representing President Wilson, and Senor Escudero expects the embargo on arms will be lifted within a few days.

That President Wilson has completed plans to crush Huerta by blockading the ports of Mexico and shutting off from him all arms and supplies was the belief expressed this morning. These plans it is understood have already been communicated to the foreign powers.

The members of the cabinet assembled this morning at the White House for a thorough discussion of the situation. It was evident from their manner that a plan of action is about to be set on foot. It was equally evident that the President's adviser— or some of them — are gravely concerned over the outlook.

Mexico Citly Nov. 18.—Admiral Paul Von Heintze, the German minister called resident German merchants and business men together, telling them that an American blockade on Mexican ports was to be declared in the next three days.

TEXAS READY TO FIGHT.

Won't Wait for Washington to Act if Mexicans Start Trouble, Says Colquitt.

Austin, Texas, Nov. 18.—"In the event Mexicans start any trouble we will protect our citizens and not wait for Washington to act," declared Gov. O. B. Colquitt late yesterday after a conference with Adjutant-General Hutchings.

While no official statement was given out, it is known that the Texas National Guard is in readiness to answer quickly any call which might be made.

The conference was the outcome of a threat by Mexicans yesterday to make Texas "answer to the whole Mexican people" unless mercy was shown Mexican ammunition smugglers charged with murder.

Governor Colquitt did not apprise Washington of today's events. He said that during a recent outbreak along the Mexican border Federal troops did not act until the Texas Rangers had been called out.

BANQUET AT MT. VERNON

Members of T. P. A. Entertain National President George H. Armstrong

Fifty members of Post F Travelers Protective Association last night journeyed to Mount Vernon and attended a dinner given in honor of George H. Armstrong, national president of the organization of Merchantville, N. J., who came to Alexandria for the purpose of paying an official visit to the order. Among the invited guests were several State officers, officials of the Chamber of Commerce and representatives of the press.

The novel idea of holding a dinner in the evening at Mt. Vernon proved a decided success. T. P. Ellis, proprietor of the cafe of that place spared no pains in making it such and probably never before have the members of this post enjoyed such treat.

It was strictly speaking a typical chicken and turkey dinner, and before the guests departed they congratulated Mr. Ellis on his fine cuisine.

Members of the local post left for Mount Vernon shortly after 8 o'clock on a special car and upon arriving there they were greeted by Mr. Ellis and within a comparatively short time were seated in the dining hall. The tables were prettily decorated with carnations and small can elebra at each table added to the illuminations. Souvenirs for the lapel of the coat consisting of a small hatchet and cherry entwined in ribbon together with napkin rings bearing a picture of Mount Vernon, were given each guest.

It was after 10 o'clock when Julian Y. Williams, president of the local post, rapped the assemblage to order, he being toastmaster of the evening. From then on until nearing midnight oratory flowed freely, and during the course of the evening many happy speeches were made by a number of the visitors as well as members of the local post. Shortly before midnight the party returned to Alexandria. Before departing a vote of thanks was extended Mr Ellis.

Mr. Williams, in his opening remarks, stated that the Virginia division of the Travelers Protective Association has a membership of 3,000 while Post F, this city, now has on its roster 153 members which is the largest in its history

He then presented Mr Armstrong with a magnolia gavel made from a tree at Mount Vernon as a token of the esteem held for Mr. Armstrong by the members of the local post. The Virginia division he said, had urged Mr. Armstrong's election as head of the National organization.

A tribute to Virginia was paid by Armstrong in his opening remarks after which he branched off in an address on the organization of which he is the head. Among other things he said that there will eventually be a waiting list in this organization. The cardinal points in the order he said should be remembered by its members and he hoped all would be loyal.

In concluding he thanked the post for the gavel and proposed to use it

More than one hundred members were present and a number of matters of interest to the organization were discussed.

Among the speakers of the evening were Hon. Charles C. Carlin, Hon. Robinson Moncure, Hon. J. Fred Birrell, District Deputy Robert S. Barret, Past Exalted Rulers Jacob Brill, W. H. P. Kelly and Howard W. Smith, E. E. Downham, John D. Norcoyle, Julius Pelton, Charles B. Marshall, and George T. Caton.

CLERICAL DELEGATES NAMED.

Virginia Methodists Select Representatives to General Conference.

Danville, Va., Nov. 18.—The Virginia Conference, Methodist Episcopal Church South, completed yesterday the election of clerical delegates to the General Conference. Those chosen were: Revs. B. F. Lipscomb, of Norfolk; J. T. Still, of Lawrenceville; W. A. Christian, of Richmond; G. E. Booker, of Petersburg. Four alternate delegates will be elected.

The vote in favor of granting the rights of the laity to the women of the church was carried by 113 to 68, but the vote was reconsidered in order to discuss the question further. The report of the committee on temperance was presented last night.

WANTS NEW MANSION.

Old Building to be Preserved for Permanent Use by Corporation Commission.

Richmond, Nov. 18.—The erection of a handsome mansion for the Governor of Virginia on the Soldiers' Home tract as a fitting companion building to the Confederate Memorial Institute, with the parking of the grounds between, when no longer used as a home for Confederate soldiers will be proposed in a bill to be offered in the General Assembly by State Senator John A. Lesner, of Norfolk. The bill will provide that the present mansion shall be preserved for its historic value, and that it be made the permanent home of the State Corporation Commission.

GIRL SWALLOWS NEEDLE.

Lies Across Her Stomach and Surgeons Cannot Aid Her.

Baltimore, Nov. 18.—Fannie Rubin, a salesgirl, lies near death in St. Joseph's Hospital. A large needle which she swallowed lies diagonally across her stomach and the surgeons are powerless to relieve her. The girl did not know what ailed her and it was only through an application of the X-ray that the needle was discovered.

It was about two months ago Miss Rubin began to complain of sharp pains in her stomach and these increased so she could not take food. If her strength can be built up by artificial feeding an operation will be attempted.

CONTROL OF RACE TRACKS.

Mann to Recommend That Power to Use Militia be Given The Governor.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 18.—In his message to the next General Assembly, Governor Mann will bring to the attention of the legislature the alleged defiance of law and order on the Jamestown Jockey Club tracks.

It is only because of his inabaliity under the present laws that Governor Mann does not, and has not ordered militia to the race course of the Jamestown Jockey Club in Norfolk county for the purpose of putting a period to race track gambling there or shutting down the racing completely.

It is understood that three magistrates in Norfolk county are placing at defiance the will of the state's chief executive and the opinion of the attorney-general and that under the present laws of the Commonwealth there is no appeal from the decisions of the magistrates in question for charges of violation and infraction of the statutes applying to gambling on the race tracks in Norfolk county.

Racing this season at the Jamestown Jockey Club tracks was opened last Thursday.

Two years ago Governor Mann made an effort to stop the riotous conduct of bookmakers who congregated about all sections of the race course in Norfolk county. At that time he dispatched Attorney-General Samuel W. Williams to the scene to inspect and render a report on conditions. The attorney-general performed his mission but the bookmaking continued.

The authority of the Governor, backed by the official opinion of his chief legal counsel locked horns with the authorities of Norfolk county and the state was worsted.

It is understod that Gov. Mann has looked up authorities and had his attorney-general do the same in an effort to ascertain whether he possessed the authority to interfere with bayonets and close the race course. It would appear that the chief executive does not under existing laws possess the power.

Governor Mann will not at this time discuss the situation, but it is known that in his message to the legislature of 1914 he will strongly urge that power be vested in the Governor of the state to invoke, when necessary, the state militia in his efforts to maintain decorum and uphold the laws of the Commonwealth.

TOWN SERGEANT SENTENCED.

James Hall, convicted of Killing Hungarian, Notes Appeal.

Big Stone Gap, Va., Nov. 18.—Jas. Hall, town sergeant of St. Paul, Wise county, was found guilty in the Circuit Court of Wise county Saturday night of voluntary manslaughter and given two years in the penitentiary.

Hall was charged with killing "Hally" Doortach, a Hungarian, on the streets of St. Paul last January. His counsel tried to show that the shooting was the result of on the part of Hall to quell a disorder being engaged in by a crowd of Hungarians.

The prosecution contended that the shooting was unnecessary; that Hall shot the prisoner while the Hungarian was lying on the ground.

The slayer noted an appeal and has been released on bond pending a further hearing in the State Supreme court.

Mrs. Ritchie had for some time been guarded by her husband and children. She managed to escape their vigilance, however, and went to a neat house, where she used a small rope to end her life by hanging. Her body was found dangling above the floor about two hours after her disappearance.

ANOTHER TRAGEDY IN POLAR REGIONS.

While the backbone of the continent has been pierced by the Panama Canal, and in a short time marine monsters will be passing from the Atlantic to the Pacific through Culebra mountain, the ice king is still defying man, and the shadow of the North Pole continues to warn him away.

Another would-be visitor to the apex of the plant—Vilhjalmar Stefansson—together with scientists and the steamer's crew have met the fate of Sir Franklin and others who have invaded the realms of the frigid zone.

As long as man remains upon the earth ever and anon daring navigators will attempt to make the northwest passage or climb the North pole, while others will lose their lives in endeavors to get to the summit of the Matterhorn.

During the eighties an English expedition was fitted out for a trip to the North Pole. It was under the tutelage of the British government, and the most powerful battleships of the day were used for the expedition.

After battling agaisnt storms, ice fields and icebergs for months, the ships were forced to make their way to the open sea and abandon the enterprise.

The ice king is still bidding defiance to man.

STUDENT MILITARY CAMPS TO BE ESTABLISHED.

The great success of the two experimental camps of instruction for students held last summer at Monterey, Cal., and Gettysburg, Pa., has induced the War Department to repeat them next year, and a bulletin has been issued by the department giving the necessary information to young men and institutions who may be interested in the subject. The camps promise to be very much larger next year, although over fifty universities and colleges were represented by student delegations at Gettysburg in July and August last. The enthusiastic testimony to the value of such camps by men like President Drinker, of Lehigh University, will add force to an invitation which of itself should make a strong appeal to young men. It is hard to imagine a healthier or more useful way of passing a vacation, or a cheaper one, as the Government defrays a considerable part of the expense, and the outlay on the part of the students is reduced to a minimum.

R. F. & P. ANNUAL MEETING.

Reports Indicate Prosperous Year, Notwithstanding Increased Tax Payments.

Richmond, Va., Nov. 19.—Annual meetings were held yesterday by stockholders of the four railway companies which own the system between Richmond and Washington, operated as a whole by the Richmond, Fredericksbug and Potomac Railroad Company. All four of the meetings were formal, the actions of the boards being approved, and the old directors re-elected.

The first meetng held was that of the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac and Richmond and Petersburg Railroad Connection Company, a corporation which owns the line from Elba to Byrd street station.

Another purely formal meeting was that of the Potomac Railway Company, which corporation owns a stretch of one and three-tenths miles of the main line between Richmond and Washington across the marshes at Quantico.

The Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac Railroad, which operates the system, owns the track from Elba station in Richmond for seventy eight miles northward. The Washington-Southern Railway Company owns the track from Quantico for thirty-one miles to the Potomac yards, just this side of Washington.

Both roads re-elected the old directors and officers. Increased earnings were shown despite the increased tax payments.

The dividend rate of 9 per cent was maintained.

MYSTERY IN WOMAN'S DEATH.

Pittsburgh Drug Clerk Held for Action of the Coroner.

Pittsburgh, Nov. 18.—The body of Mrs. Mayme Greineisen, 35 years old, was found late yesterday in the basement under the pharmacy of C. A. Gavens, on the South Side.

Michael L. Sweeney, a clerk employed in the store, was arrested soon after the body was removed. He told of having helped carry Mrs. Greineisen into the basement about 8 o'clock Sunday night. He was in a highly nervous state and his story was disconnected.

The body of the woman was covered with bruises and a few clothes that covered it were torn. When found it lay on a pile of cinders.

Mrs. Greineisen was the wife of Oliver Greineisen, a drug clerk employed in another part of the city. According to Sweeney, she came to the store Sunday night scantily attired and he said that he and another man carried her into the basement. A search is being made for the man mentioned by Sweeney. Sweeney was taken in charge by the police and will be held for the action of the coroner. The police place little credence in his story.

The discovery came through a remark alleged to have been made by Sweeney to a friend that a woman was in the cellar. The police were notified and they started an investigation.

Frank P. Glass, editor of the Birmingham, Ala., News and president of the Montgomery Advertiser, was yesterday appointed United States senator by Governor O'Neal to succeed the late Senator Joseph F. Johnston. The term expires March 3, 1915.

T. P. A. BANQUET.

He said it would revive happy recollections of the milk of human kindness displayed by members of Post F.

Carrol Pierce president of the Chamber of Commerce, spoke on behalf of that organization. He told of the work it is trying to do for the City of Alexandria and surrounding community. Among other things he told of its efforts to get the proposed armor plant of the Government located here. A former Senator from Ohio, he said, recently informed him that many members of Congress felt kindly towards locating the proposed plant in Alexandria.

Mr. Pierce declared that the work of the city council in improving the city's streets will redown to the city's credit. The city he declared, is again coming into its own and he predicted that the bond issue just passed for good roads in Mount Vernon district, Fairfax county, will add to Alexandria's credit. Good roads he said will bring strangers to this community who will be of value to us.

In conclusion the speaker said he trusted the Chamber of Commerce would co-operate with Post F, in anything for the benefit of the City of Alexandria.

In a short address Charles Smoot, third, of North Wilkesboro N. C., told of the work being accomplished by the organization in North Carolina.

Clarence D. Coleman, director of the Virginia division, Richmond made a very humorous address, and concluded by telling his auditors to always have a motto and "boost their own city."

A. D. Brockett former state president of the organization paid a tribute to Mr. Armstrong and his work for the organization. He told of the work done by Mr. Armstrong at a number of national conventions and also told of the good work being accomplished by the order.

Work being accomplished by the order was also narrated by State Secretary P. H. Harwood, of Richmond, who urged tthe members to work hard for success in the upbuilding of the order.

J. H. Trimyer in a short address said among other things that the members of the T. P. A., are progressive and give impetus to the upbuilding of Alexandria.

Others who made short addresses were J. William May, T. F. Ellis, P. J. Paff, W. W. Ballenger and R. W. Pitts.

Recovered from Lung Trouble—Now Insured

Insurance companies will not accept any one affected with Lung Trouble. When you know a man who has been afflicted and who later has been insured, such action means that the policy holder must be in a very good state of health. Cases have been reported where Lung Sufferers after taking Eckman's Alterative, a remedy for Throat and Lung Troubles, have successfully passed the medical test of insurance companies. Read this case:

231 Dean St., Brooklyn, N. Y.
"Gentlemen: About a year and a half ago I noticed that my health was rapidly failing. I was troubled with night sweats, a severe cough and was losing weight, having, in fact, absolutely no ambition whatever. About this time I consulted a physician, who told me my lungs were affected. Not satisfied I went to another doctor, who, after examining me, said that I was in the first stages of Lung Trouble. At this point I started to take Eckman's Alterative. The night sweats stopped almost immediately, my cough became looser and gradually disappeared. My weight is now 142 pounds and my physician has pronounced me perfectly sound—which, together with the fact that I have just been accepted by two different insurance companies for insurance, makes me sure of my entire recovery by Eckman's Alterative."
(Affidavit) W. E. GEE.
Eckman's Alterative has been proven by many years' test to be most efficacious for severe Throat and Lung Affections, Bronchitis, Bronchial Asthma, Stubborn Colds and in upbuilding the system. Contains no narcotics, poisons or habit-forming drugs. Ask for booklet telling of recoveries, and write to Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia, Pa., for evidence. For sale by all leading druggists

MR. PRETTYMAN PROTESTS.

Takes Exception to Article in the Gazette Describing Football Game.

In last Saturday's issue of the Gazette there appeared an article in reference to the football game between the Alexandria High School and the Steward's Business College. The article was written by a member of the high school and published at the request of one of the members of the faculty of the school. It was laudatory of the work of the high school team but in the end gave as the reason for the defeat of the team the following: "When had they been better trained might have resulted in a victorious score." The entire article is as follows:

"Before a large crowd of enthusiastic young people Steward's Business College Foot Ball team defeated the Alexandria High School yesterday afternoon at the base ball park by pushing the pig skin over the line for a touch down goal, and safety registering eight points to the home teams nothing. The High School boys put up a game fight and contested every inch of the ground but was forced to give away to superior training and team play. Their offensive work was very good and their fighting spirit showed up to advantage on several occasions, but their defense was poor, allowing their opponent to open their line for long gains at critical movements when had they been better trained might have resulted in a victorious score."

E. B. Prettyman, a teacher in the High School, has written the Gazette a long protest against the use of this sentence and proceeds not only to indict the Gazette but also the citizens of Alexandria. He characterizes it as an "unwarranted slur upon the efforts of those trying to give the school representative athletic teams."

His letter is as follows.

Editor of the Alexandria Gazette,

Dear Sir: As a teacher in the Alexandria High and one interested in the welfare of the school and its athletics,, I want to protest against your account of the foot ball game played last Friday between the High School and Steward's Business College. The remarks contained therein, as published in your Saturday's edition, were an unwarranted slur upon the efforts of those endeavoring to give the school representative athletic teams. The fact of the matter is that the visiting team outweighed our boys some 15 or 20 pounds average, and were correspondingly fast. Such a handicap is indeed a handicap to a team of boys of 135 pounds and 16 years old, and it was due only to their splendid fighting spirit and their training that they kept the score down to only eight points. The captain of the S. B. C. team remarked: "We are a bunch of boobs for not beating those kids 40 to 0."

Only once this season has the team met an opponent of equal weight, the Fredericksburg High School team and then they whipped easily. They defeated the heavy Manassas team, held the heavy R. M. A. team to 3 to 0, the heavy Eastern High School team to 6 to 0, and during the second half of the game wth Business outplayed that crack team.

The school here works under numerous handicaps in its athletics. The number of big boys is small. Many of them are compelled to work during many afternoons. There are no teams within playing distance who are of equal weight. The park is far from the center of town and the school has no athletic grounds.

The football coach, on whom your paper seems to cast blame, is the principal of the boys' school with all of the attendant duties upon him, and also attends law lectures each evening in Washington. Yet he goes out to the park each afternoon in his effort to give this city a fair athletic standing, and to encourage the boys in their efforts.

It seems to me that under all these conditions your paper should compliment the boys on such a game exhibition and the coach on the spirit he has instilled into his team, rather than endeavor to discourage their efforts by remarking that they should have won and would have done so had they been better trained.

I take the pains to protest at length because the incident seems typical of the attitude of numbers of citizens toward the struggle of the high school toward modern, progressive system and equipment.

Respectfully,

E. BARRETT PRETTYMAN.
